

Poland and Its Neighbours in the 20th and 21st Century, 1918-2022 Convergences and Divergences

18th October 2024, Grosse Scharrnstrasse 23 a, Frankfurt (Oder), Room 105 (Wolff-Saal)

09:15 Welcome Coffee

09:30 Introduction

09:35 Panel I: MANYFOLD TRANSFORMATIONS

Chair: Tomasz Rawski

Claudia Foltyn, Augsburg

Poland's and Its Neighbours' Quest for Energy Security

The Case Study of Fracking as an Exemplary Lesson in Value Divergence

Bartosz Matyja, Warsaw

Domesticating Foreign Trade

Economic Narratives and Societal Change in Poland, 1956-1976

10:50 Short Coffee Break

11:00 Panel II: CHALLENGED DEMOCRACY

Chair: Bartosz Matyja

Anton Liavitski, St. Gallen

Democracy and Its Discontents

Revisiting Post-Communism's Great Divide

Tomasz Rawski, Warsaw

Visions of Future Russia among Russian War Migrants

12:15 Lunch Break

13:15 Panel III: PROBLEMATIC RELATIONS

Chair: Stephan Rindlisbacher

Alexandra Pulvermacher, Klagenfurt

German-Soviet Collaboration in the Persecution of the Polish Resistance, September 1939 – June 1941

Magdalena Gibiec, Wrocław

Radicalisation to Violence

Understanding Polish-Ukrainian Relations in Interwar Period through the Prism of Resentment

14:30 Coffee Break

15:00 Panel IV: COMPETING COMMEMORATIONS

Chair: Falk Flade

Mark Keck-Szajbel, Frankfurt (Oder)

Vergangenheitsbewältigung and the Never-Ending Debate on Reparations

Veronika Warzycha, Berlin

The Socio-Spatial Memory of the Polish-German Border

16:15 Short Coffee Break

16:30 Concluding Discussion

17:00 Closure of the Workshop

Supported by

DEUTSCH | POLSKO
POLNISCHE | NIEMIECKA
WISSENSCHAFTS | FUNDACJA
STIFTUNG | NA RZECZ NAUKI

For the panels, all guests are welcome, please, contact
Stephan Rindlisbacher (rindlisbacher@europa-uni.de)